

Dennis Everett, aka Preacha Rhymes, has traversed much ground from being a gang leader to national thought leader and activist in prison reform, youth work and organizational development. In parallel to his community-building efforts, Dennis, as Preacha Rhymes, has established himself as an original voice as a singer, rapper and composer. In 2021 he began collaborating with beheard.world, bringing his unique, powerful messages and songs to the collective.